CarMD.com Corp. Announces Affiliate Marketing Program

FOUNTAIN VALLEY, Calif. – (Oct. 5, 2010) – CarMD.com Corporation is pleased to announce its new affiliate marketing program, which is designed to help partners increase revenue by earning commission from the sale of its popular CarMD® Vehicle Health System™ (MSRP $98.99), generated from partner websites. Winner of the prestigious 2010 Edison Best Product Award, CarMD is the only product on the market that gives vehicle owners both the tools and information to monitor their vehicle's health, and estimate parts and labor costs from home.

"We believe the CarMD affiliate program will be a success with a wide range of websites because we offer a product that transcends the automotive industry and appeals to virtually anyone who owns a car, truck, minivan or SUV," said Eric Huang, CarMD's online marketing coordinator. "With over 170 million prospective customers on the road – and the Internet today – we believe this large customer base and our flexible affiliate program will appeal to marketers from coast to coast."

The CarMD affiliate program, offered via the Link Share Network, is ideal for website owners from bloggers to major brand companies in a range of industries from automotive to consumer electronics and beyond. The program offers a staggered commission rate based on selling price and volume, and a 30-day money-back guarantee on all sales. Private offers and loyalty programs are also available for high performing affiliates. To sign up for the Link Share Network Click here.
